Attention: Craig Schultz

Although the above-referenced Fi360 Due Diligence Report (the 'report') appears consistent with applicable standards, we offer the following specific comments:

Please be advised that we have reviewed the report with the understanding that this material is intended for use with financial advisors and plan sponsors of retirement plan investment programs. The report is not intended for the general public or plan participants. We further understand the purpose of the report is to list the specific mutual funds currently available in a retirement program in addition to new mutual funds that are being considered as new options for investment. If our understanding is inaccurate, please advise us, as additional comments will be necessary.

Please be advised that our review of this material is not intended to offer comment regarding the validity of the Fi360 Fiduciary Software to determine the appropriateness or the suitability of a particular investment.

Please contact me at 240-386-4500 with questions regarding these comments.

Sincerely,

Christopher J. Romano
Analyst
