

Andy Frommeyer is the Director of Product Development and Management with Fiduciary360 (fi360). In this role, he oversees fi360's suite of products and services delivered through the Training, Tools and Resources business lines. He is responsible for the development of a product from concept through to launch and the management and improvement of existing products.

In his preceding position with fi360, Andy directed the Tools line of business. He helped to develop the fi360 Fiduciary Score™ and the Fund Family Fiduciary Rankings™ as well as other proprietary fi360 innovations that have become industry standards.

Andy has been with the company since its inception, helping to build it from a start-up operation to one of the most well known training and technology providers in the industry.

Prior to joining fi360, Andy worked in the actuarial division of a global consulting firm. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics from Pennsylvania State University and has completed the MBA Essentials program at the Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business, Center for Executive Education at the University of Pittsburgh. In addition, he has earned the Accredited Investment Fiduciary® designation and holds the NASD Series 65 license.

Dave Palascak heads up the Tools business line. He is responsible for product development and management of the online tools and other tools-related products. Dave also is the core relationship manager for individual advisor subscriptions to the online tools.

Dave graduated Magna Cum Laude from the University of Pittsburgh in 2003 with a B.S.B.A in Finance. Dave holds the Accredited Investment Fiduciary designation, the NASD Series 65 license and is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) Charterholder.

Michael Limbacher is responsible for product support and demonstrations of fi360's Tools. He also assists in the enhancement and quality assurance of the Tools.

Michael obtained his MBA from the Katz Graduate School of Business at the University of Pittsburgh while concentrating in Finance. He also has graduated from Miami University with a BS in Business, majoring in Management Information Systems. He has recently received the Accredited Investment Fiduciary® designation from fi360.
