Kathryn Hauer

Financial Advisor, Planner and Author

Kathryn Hauer, CFP® and EA, is an advocate of blue collar careers, a financial advisor/planner, and the author of Financial Advice for Blue Collar America. Her mission is to educate and empower people of all socioeconomic groups to keep themselves financially safe and grow their money effectively. Her work as a lecturer, teacher, writer, presenter, negotiator, researcher, and office manager in a diverse cross section of business, educational, and government organizations has helped her gain the depth of knowledge needed to advise her clients in all aspects of sound financial planning and investment.

As a champion for financial literacy, she speaks at businesses, construction sites, high schools, libraries, career fairs, churches, businesses and community groups – anywhere she can get a platform! – to raise awareness about financial knowledge and safety. Kathy teaches current and future blue collar employees, serves blue collar clients, and worked for 20+ years in the construction industry. She has been published and quoted on many national sites including CNBC.com; NASDAQ; BBC.com; CSMonitor; Atlanta Journal Constitution; and many other sites.
