

Thom Shumusic

Founder & President, MidAtlantic Retirement Planning Specialists

Thom brings over 30 years of hands-on experience in the 401(k) arena to the table. He has a deep passion for providing plan participants and plan sponsors with the tools they need to create a successful retirement plan. Thom and his firm believe that face to face help leads to far better results—more participant engagement, more participation, more retirement savings and better run plans.

Thom is a graduate of the University of Delaware and currently serves the University's Financial Planning Major as an Advisory Board Member. He attained his CFP through the College for Financial Planning and his AIF through the Center for Fiduciary Studies. Thom lives in Wilmington DE and Clearwater, FL with his wife, Stephanie. Thom and Stephanie have endowed an Athletic Scholarship at the University of Delaware. They have three adult children. Thom is also a member of Rotary.
