

Johann Klaassen

AIF®, CFP®

Johann A. Klaassen is Executive Vice President and Chief Investment Officer for Horizons Sustainable Financial Services. He develops asset allocation strategies and oversees investment policy for Horizons' individual and institutional clients.

He is a CFP® designee, and was among the first in the nation to embrace the AIF® designation holding certificate #70. He holds a B.A. from St. John's College, Annapolis/Santa Fe, and Masters and PhD degrees from the Philosophy Department of Washington University, St. Louis, where he specialized in Ethics and Social Philosophy.

He continues to write and publish, for both academic and popular press outlets. He is a frequent guest lecturer in philosophy departments and business schools at colleges and universities, and at business and social justice conferences.

Kimberly Kiel AIF®

Kimberly Kiel is President of Horizons Sustainable Financial Services. She is an Accredited Investment Fiduciary™ (AIF), and is committed to helping investors achieve financial success while simultaneously pursuing positive environmental, social, and economic change consistent with their values.

A graduate of the College of Santa Fe, Kim is currently undergoing a course of study at Marylhurst University, pursuing an MBA in Sustainability. She learned the fine points of SRI from the ground up, starting as an administrator for the Santa Fe office of First Affirmative Financial Network and eventually becoming a partner in the firm before purchasing it in 2007 and re-establishing it as Horizons Sustainable Financial Services.

Kim has served on the boards of numerous Santa Fe-based social service and educational non-profits, and is currently working to establish a local Santa Fe chapter of the Green Chamber of Commerce.
