

Mike Skrypnek

Mike Skrypnek, author of “Philanthropy; an Inspired Process”, is an expert in guiding families in their personal journey to realize a bigger impact in their lifetimes and beyond. Through his INSPIRED Process™, estate and legacy planning becomes purposeful. Mike has conducted dozens of presentations for lawyers, accountants, financial advisors and philanthropic professionals throughout Canada.

Mike, a native of Calgary, and his family have been actively involved in volunteering and fundraising in Calgary for the past twenty years. Their charitable fund is the Fit Family Fund. Mike has been a member of the Professional Advisor’s Committee of The Calgary Foundation, is a board member of the Canadian Association of Gift Planners – Southern Alberta Roundtable, and holds the designation of Accredited Investment Fiduciary (AIFP®) with the Center for Fiduciary Excellence (CEFEX). Additionally, Mike has written and published two white papers on investment management and fiduciary responsibility for both high net worth investors and non-profit organizations. Mike and his wife Sherri, and their two children, Madison and Coen live and play in Calgary’s west side.